

WENKE B. THOMAN STERNS

Industrial Mineral Holdings, LLC

Wenke Thoman Sterns has more than 35 years of experience in Business and Finance. She began her career with A. Lipper & Co. and soon after co-founded the Turnbull Bay Corporation, a broker dealer, making Ms. Thoman Sterns the first female member of the Boston Stock Exchange. Ms. Thoman Sterns's vast career in finance includes working in the Investment Banking Division of Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette on high technology initial public offerings, serving as the Vice President of Corporate Finance at Paine Webber, as well as the Vice President for Mergers and Acquisitions for American Can Company. Ms. Thoman Sterns is passionately interested in cross-cultural exchanges and believes that such exchange can transform lives. She holds an M.B.A. from INSEAD (Institut Européen d'Administration des Affaires).